GLEANERS ENJOYING THEIR ANNUAL PICNIC

Largest Crowd in Many Years in Attendance at Towle's Woods Today.

The annual picnic of the Ancient Order of Gleaners of Mt. Arbor, is being held today in Towle's woods, near Mishawaka. During the forenoon the crowd began to assemble and by the time scheduled for the program of events to start, many hundreds of vehicles of all descriptions had arrived on the grounds. After the rainfall of Tuesday night, little work could be accomplished on the farm, and in consequence, the attendance of farmers and their families was said to be the largest in many years. The list of events was a long one and it was necessary to start the program at noon, by which time the woods were crowded by a happy holiday lot of people. During the day a large number of Mishawakans went to the picnic grounds and helped to enjoy the proceedings. The grocer and butcher stores being closed this afternoon, many of the merchants were able to attend the picnic. The first item on the program was a baby contest for which there were several entries. The prizes are many and were contributed by the Mishawakans. Twelve men from the Woolen Co. were in attendance, and during the day contributed several selections which were immensely enjoyed. A good literary service between the city and the grounds is being maintained.

SEVERE ARRAIGNMENT GIVEN CHILD BEATER

Mrs. Olga Schmitt Gets Suspended Sentence—Other Police News.

"The fact that you are a woman is the only thing that prevents me telling you what I think of a woman who deliberately beat a little boy until the child is black and blue," said Judge Feig to Mrs. Olga Schmitt, 225 E. Sixth st., when the latter was found guilty of beating Claudis Schmitt, 12 years old, her brother-in-law.

Mrs. Schmitt interrupted the judge and said that she was not ashamed of beating the child as he had done wrong. The judge told her that a woman who would maliciously strike a little child would not be ashamed of anything. During the arraignment the Schmitt woman merely laughed. Judge Feig imposed a sentence of $25 and costs on the woman and then suspended the sentence.

Charles Mottis, charged with failure to support his child was given a week of grace and was ordered to pay his wife $5 a week for the support of the youngster.

TWO CARS TELESCOPE AND BLOCK TRAFFIC

Service on the west bound track of the New York Central was tied up for several hours Tuesday afternoon when an air coupling on a car near the engine broke, causing a heavily laden furniture car to telescope a steel coal car.

The truck and under work of the furniture car were badly damaged, while the end of the coal car was completely caved in by the impact. The brakes on a car several lengths in the rear of the two that telescoped were thrown out of place. Crossings were cut and the wrecker sent for, which removed the broken cars to a nearby sidetrack. Passenger train No. 21, west bound, was delayed several minutes by the accident. A large crowd of people and several vehicles were held back by the closed crossings.

TAMARACK GRANGE

Tamarack Grange No. 2212, met at their hall June 15. 84 responding to roll call. Nine new members were obligated. Two were balloted for, both favorable, and three applications presented. The financial committee reported and their report was very encouraging on the hall and other expenditures. After recess a literary program was given. Songs and recitations by Allan Seifert, Arthur Bokhart, Ruth Grenett, Mable Godshall, Minnie Becher and Mary Seitz. Mildred Riggs, as member of the G. A. G. club or Old Maids' club, read a prophesy on the club members 20 years hence, and unlike "The Old Clock on the Stairs," none were dead, but some were married, some were yet spinsters, one a star on the stage and another residing in Europe.

A discussion on "How Much Work Should Children Do on the Farm Outside of School Hours," was led by Charles Grenett. Mrs. George Hahn gave a talk on "How Should We Keep the Boys and Girls Interested on the Farm?"

Proposed for July 6: Question box on conditions of soil improvement; a discussion on "The Importance of Thrift, Self Denial and Economy of the Young Farmer," led by John Laidlaw, followed by August Bokhart and Fred Klein; readings by Anna Laidlaw and Laverna Riggs.

Tamarack Grange was organized May 6, 1915, and has now 175 members. The new hall is nearly completed, 46x66 feet, equipped with a large dining room and kitchen in basement, and is situated six miles southeast of Mishawaka. The Grange here is doing a great work in the betterment of our rural conditions, both on the farm and in our social circles. The G. A. G. club, or Old Maids' club, is composed of spinsters, ranging in age from 14 to 21 years. They keep things lively and are a great inducement to keep our young people interested in rural social life by giving socials and entertainments.

The only possible way for girls to join the G. A. G. club is to become a member of Tamarack Grange No. 2212, and the only possible way for boys to attend their social functions is to likewise join Tamarack Grange. The young men of the Grange will soon organize a ball team.

MEMORY DESERTS MAN WHEN HE GETS DRUNK

Charles Lambrecht Tells Judge He Doesn't Know What Happened.

Charles Lambrecht came to Mishawaka Tuesday afternoon and got himself into all kinds of trouble. He just started begging from house to house, carrying around a pack of old umbrellas as an excuse. Then he got into trouble in a saloon, and he wound up by striking Lehman Hepler, a 15-year-old lad. This last caused his arrest on a charge of assault and battery.

Arraigned before Judge Feig Wednesday morning, Lambrecht told the court that he remembered getting on the street car at South Bend but did not remember anything else until he woke up in jail this morning. He admitted that he was pretty drunk, and when in that condition often lost control of his memory.

Judge Feig fined him $5 and costs and sent him to jail to lay out the fine. He told the man that it was the best place for a fellow who was in the habit of forgetting.

DESTROYER DIVISION ORDERED TO STEAM INTO SOUTHERN WATERS

are taking every precaution to be in readiness for an open break if it comes. Light draught vessels now are in Mexican waters and within striking distance awaiting the signal to institute an iron clad blockade. Treasury officials are refusing clearance to munitions of every sort destined to Mexican territory in accordance with the policy enunciated by the president in his message to Carranza, which stated that no further exports of munitions, or of munition making machinery, would be permitted "as long as there is any evidence of an intention on the part of the de facto government or its military commanders to use force against the American troops instead of cooperating with them."

Perfect Plans. The national guard is being mobilized and the war department is perfecting its plans to rush selected units to the front in response to the persistent demand made by Maj. Gen. Frederick Funston, commanding on the border.

Sec'y of War Baker is in almost constant touch with the white house. He conferred with Pres't Wilson until nearly midnight last night and saw him again early this morning. It is understood that the war secretary and the president finally have decided what troops shall go to the border first. Although information regarding troop movements is refused, there is little doubt that New York, Illinois, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and one southern state not yet selected, will have the first call. New York occupies a place of advantage in view of the fact that the dual oath of allegiance to the state and the Union has been a part of the Empire state's militia requirements for some time past.

Just how soon these troops can be moved is not known here. Gen. Funston's demand for reinforcements was insistent. He asked for an immediate assignment of some 35,000 men, and it is expected that the selection will be made from units which are already well above peace strength and whose ranks can be recruited up to the limit after they have gone to the border from men in their home stations.

Grave Anxiety. There is naturally grave anxiety here about the safety of the Americans still remaining in Mexico. It was expected that all those in Mexico City who want to leave will be started for Vera Cruz on a special train as soon as Consul Gen. Rodgers can arrange for a guard to accompany the train. Rodgers already has notified his government that Zapatistas have been very active along the line of the railroad connecting the Mexican capital with the sea coast and he was instructed to insist that the military command at Mexico City furnish an adequate guard to the refugee train which he (Rodgers) was ordered to arrange for.

Reports of the maltreatment of Americans at a number of points in Mexico were without confirmation at the state department today.

That the Mexican population expects war with the United States is indicated in all of the official dispatches received from state department agents along the border. These reports tell of a general exodus southward of the Mexican population of border towns.

The state department today still was without official confirmation of the reports that Gen. Carranza has issued a decree calling upon all males between the ages of 15 and 35 to volunteer for service with the colors. Officials, however, are inclined to believe that this report is true in view of the reports that many Mexican males of military age who have attempted to flee into the United States, have been stopped en route and impressed into the Carranzista army.

ENLIST MEXICANS.

International News Service: CHICAGO, June 21.—Military instructions of the volunteers now being called to the colors by the de facto government of Mexico will commence next Sunday, according to a statement issued by Ambassador-Designate Arredondo today. At the same time he announced that several American citizens owning property in the state of Tabasco have called upon the governor of that state, asking permission to remain there even though the United States and Mexico become involved in war.

"These persons have stated that they are not in accord with the policy of the United States," continued the Arredondo statement, "and the department of foreign affairs has telegraphed Gov. Malicia of Tabasco that they are to be permitted to remain and guaranteed protection for their persons and property. Their attitude indicates that the good element and the American people in Mexico do not approve any drastic action which they do not consider justified."

"The first chief is receiving thousands of offers of young men ready to join the army. From one place alone 8,000 miners offered to enlist in a body. The only thing limiting the number of volunteers is the supply of arms and ammunition. All foreigners are being afforded adequate protection."

International News Service: WASHINGTON, June 21.—All of the light draught gunboats and torpedo boat destroyers in the Atlantic and Pacific fleets today are under orders to hold themselves in readiness for active service. Their commanders have been directed to get them in shape for sea duty and to load all necessary munitions and supplies immediately.

The "mosquito" fleet will be utilized to maintain an ironclad blockade of the entire Mexican seaboard, should hostilities with the de facto government come.

The vessels ordered in readiness are: On east coast—Destroyers Smith, Fluesser, Lamson, Preston, Reid, Walke, Monaghan, Perkins, Roe, Sterrett, Terry, Drayton, Henry, Mayrant, Parker, Patterson, Jonett, Ammen, Beale, Burrows, Downs and Trippe.

On west coast—Destroyers Hall, Hopkins, Lawrence and Truxton. The gunboats under orders are Paducah, now in Caribbean sea, Petrel, now in Guantanamo, Cuba; Vicksburg and Rouser, now at Boston.

OFFICERS ASSIGNED.

International News Service: CHICAGO, June 21.—Col. Donald A. Frederick, chief mastering officer of the central division of the army today announced the following assignments of officers for recruiting duty:

Indiana—At Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis: Capt. John J. Tooley, Jr., infantry; First Lieuts. Philip Remington, infantry; Robert Kirkwood, third field artillery; and Second Lieut. Gilbert B. Cook, 27th infantry.

Michigan—At Grayling: Capt. Frank Wells, 26th infantry; Robert Ragdale, infantry; and First Lieuts. Ira Longenecker, 22nd infantry, and William Fitzmaurice, infantry.

The officers have been instructed to report immediately. They are also ordered to aid in every way possible the organization and instruction of such militia as they have opportunity to aid.

PLAN TRANSPORTATION.

International News Service: CHICAGO, June 21.—Final plans to facilitate the movements of troops over the Chicago and Northwestern railroad were completed today following a series of extended conferences. From now on it was stated, the road will be conducted as though it were government property. Troop movements and transportation of supplies will take precedence over all private business.

All the main officials of the system were in conference on schedules and general mobilization plans.

READY FOR FIELD.

International News Service: ATLANTA, Ga., June 21.—The Georgia national guard is ready for the field. All companies have been recruited to the required number of men, each man has been supplied with full war equipment and Gov. Harris has notified Pres't Wilson that the guardsmen are ready to entrain for Mexico. It is expected, however, that the guard will be sent to the concentration camp at Macon before moving to the border.

ABLE TO WORK AFTER 5 YEARS

A. J. Wyrick Tells How Tanlac Quickly Banished His Troubles.

Kokomo, Ind., June 20.—"Tanlac certainly has done more for me than anything else. Since taking the medicine I'm able to attend to my stock after being unable to work for five years. I heartily recommend Tanlac."

"This was the tribute paid the Master Medicine a few days ago by A. J. Wyrick, a prominent farmer, who lives on rural route No. 7, Kokomo. "I had rheumatism," Mr. Wyrick continued. "I couldn't turn over in bed at night without holding my head with both my hands, the rheumatic pains were so severe. "My condition is greatly improved since I have taken two bottles of Tanlac. The rheumatic pains do not bother me any more now and I'm back at work again."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, and the like and is a fine blood purifier. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Mishawaka at the Red Cross Pharmacy.—Adv.
